Dear Ilham,

I hope you are doing well. I would like to inform you that the review process has been completed. The Editor required that your paper be updated based on the following comments from our reviewers.

Reviewer 1:

The reviewers have submitted their reviews on the article The Contingency of Islamic Socio-Political Leadership in the Balanipa Kingdom.

The reviewers have approved the publication of the article in LOGOS after the editing of the English language text of the article.

Please review the English language with the native speaker.

The reviewers will read the article again for the correctness of the language.

Best wishes,

Dalia

Reviewer 2:

The reviewer 2 of your article have decided that it still needs to be edited. They recommend to pay special attention to the use of tenses, spelling mistakes.

Logos journal articles do not provide methodology. If a methodology is necessary, it is described in a few sentences in the introduction.

Also, please, look through the structure of the article to make it consistent regarding the parts of the text. The references in the text need more attention - follow the requirements of the journal for references in the text and in the reference list.

Your photo is not suitable for publication. Must have a resolution of 300 dpi and a photo size of at least 3 cm x 4.5 cm. It can be bigger. We also need your full name.

We are waiting for the corrected text as soon as possible.

I am attaching the instructions for the authors and the places to be corrected marked by the editor. But there are more of them. Correct carefully.

Best wishes,
Dalia
